New ATL42S and ATL52S Suitable for the harshest of environments

Squire have updated their All Terrain padlocks to a new design. These highly weather resistant rustproof padlocks are manufactured to the highest standards for quality performance even under the harshest environmental conditions. Stainless steel shackles and solid brass lock bodies mean that these padlocks are an ideal choice for use in very exposed environments.

The ATL42S has a security rating of 4, and the ATL52S has a security rating of 5.
